COM/CITEL MENTORING PROGRAM – ROAD TO PP-26
CALL FOR MENTORS AND PROTÉGÉS.

Program Summary

The COM/CITEL Mentorship Program is designed to ensure the continuity of procedures in accordance with CITEL's statutes and regulations, as well as to prepare individuals interested in the scope and work of CITEL at the regional and international levels, especially for Assemblies and World Conferences. This program is open to all members, with a focus on young people, women, and newcomers. The COM/CITEL Mentoring Program employs various engagement strategies, support mechanisms and resources which mentor - protégé teams draw on in ways that suit their particular circumstances and preferences.

Objective

To provide support to delegates from CITEL Member States so they can participate meaningfully in COM/CITEL meetings, CITEL Assemblies, the ITU Council, and the ITU Plenipotentiary Conference, fostering a deeper understanding of governance, key processes, rules and procedures, as well as other topics and activities related to these meetings.

Mentor Profile

Professionals from the Americas with relevant experience and leadership in COM/CITEL, the ITU Council, and Plenipotentiary Conferences, who possess strong interpersonal and communication skills. Interested individuals are invited to volunteer as mentors in this program.

Protégés Profile

Individuals eligible to represent the administrations of CITEL Member States or Associate Members who believe they could benefit from the program. They are invited to apply as protégés.

Timeline:

- Call for mentors & protégés: until 23 January
- Notice of mentor-protégé matches: 4 February
- Start of program & orientation session (virtual): 25 February
- End of program: 27 November
