

SOUTH SCHOOL OF DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION AND INNOVATION IN THE CARIBBEAN (SODTIC) 2026

UNITED NATIONS

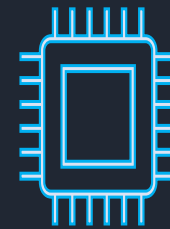

ECLAC

29 June – 03 July, 2026

The University of the West Indies
Mona Campus - Kingston, Jamaica

Theme: Caribbean digital sovereignty in the age of AI:
*strengthening digital public infrastructure, the Internet ecosystem, and meaningful connectivity

What is SODTIC?

BACKGROUND

School of Digital Transformation and Innovation, Latin America = 11 years

Focus on the Caribbean → SODTIC 2024 & 2025:

- Applied learning and capacity building
 - Interactive lectures
 - peer exchanges
 - panel discussions,
 - case studies

- Practical policy insights tailored to Caribbean needs
- Global best practices adapted to regional realities
- Engagement with technical community & development partners

THEMATIC PILLARS

Resilient, secure, and sustainable digital infrastructure.

Internet governance, architecture, and the evolving digital ecosystem

Meaningful connectivity

Data governance, AI, and digital innovation ecosystems

Digital transformation for development.

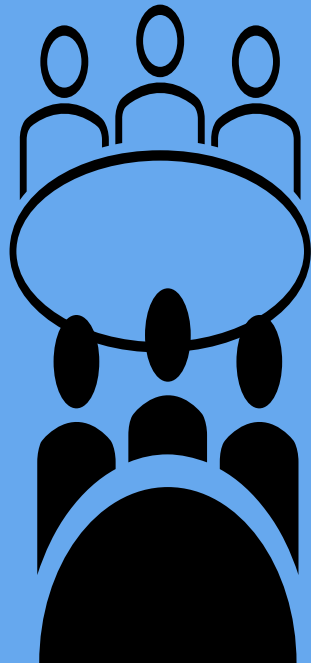

Regional collaboration as key pillar and cross-cutting enabler

Participants and Partners

PARTICIPANTS

- ❑ Mid-to-Senior Level Policy Makers
 - 7+ experience
 - Scholarships to be provided for 1 representative/country
- ❑ Regulators, academia, private sector and international organizations are also included.

PARTNERS

ECLAC

Thank you!

UNITED NATIONS

ECLAC