PLANNING YOUR JOURNEY TO FRENCH GUIANA

The CTU Secretariat encourages delegates to begin planning travel early to ensure a smooth journey to CTU ICT Week 2026 in Cayenne, French Guiana (20–24 September 2026).

TRAVEL PLANNING

IMPORTANT CONSIDERATIONS

- ⚠ Limited Connectivity: French Guiana has limited options for international direct air connectivity.
- ⚠ Connecting Flights: Most delegates should anticipate one or more transit connections before reaching Cayenne (CAY).
- ⚠ Early Booking: Securing routes well in advance is essential due to high demand and limited seat capacity.

PRIMARY GATEWAY HUBS

Fort-de-France, Martinique

The main Caribbean gateway

Paris, France

The primary international gateway

Limited Regional Access

RECOMMENDED TRAVEL DATES

PLAN YOUR ARRIVAL

Strongly recommended arrival date:

 Arrive By Sat, 19 Sept 2026

-  Limited Sunday Flights: Caribbean routes have strictly limited services on Sundays.
-  Paris Transit Option: Sunday arrivals are generally only achievable when routing via Paris.

PLAN YOUR DEPARTURE

Strongly recommended departure date:

 Depart On Fri, 25 Sept 2026

-  Reliability: This aligns with the most dependable outbound scheduling from Cayenne.
-  Avoid Delays: Minimizes the risk of overnight transits or missed regional connections.
